Skills Developed

- ✓ Gross motor skills
- ✓ Observation & focus
- ✓ Counting & sorting
- ✓ Problem-solving
- ✓ Following clues
- ✓ Social skills & turn taking
- ✓ Independence & confidence

What You'll Need

-  Plastic Easter eggs (filled or empty)
-  Small treats or toys (optional)
-  Clues or hint cards (optional)
-  Basket or bag
-  Outdoor or indoor space
-  Something fun for the grand prize!

How to Set Up

- 1 Fill the eggs with small treats, stickers or notes.
- 2 Hide the eggs around your chosen space.
- 3 (Optional) Create simple clues to lead to the next egg.
- 4 Give your child a basket and explain the mission!
- 5 Let the hunt begin!
- 6 Celebrate their finds and enjoy the fun!

Fun Hunt Ideas

- ★ Colour hunt: Find all the eggs of one colour.
- ★ Number hunt: Find and count the eggs.
- ★ Letter hunt: Find eggs with letters and make a word!
- ★ Golden egg: One extra special egg with a bigger prize!

Chaos Tip

Make it easier or harder depending on your child's age. The goal is fun, not perfection! Cheer them on and enjoy making memories together.

Learning Through Play

While your child is having fun, they're also learning about:

- ✓ Counting & numbers
- ✓ Colours & patterns
- ✓ Direction & location
- ✓ Memory & recall
- ✓ Patience & persistence
- ✓ Independence

Safety First

- ✓ Always supervise children.
 - ✓ Choose age-appropriate treats.
 - ✓ Check the area for hazards.
- Avoid small items for children under 3.
